

A network that facilitates the job search of partners of relocated employees.

WHY JOIN THE IDCN ?

The IDCN provides valuable career information relevant to the local market and works as a platform for networking and information sharing amongst its members.

Specifically, the IDCN:

- > Facilitates events that showcase job searching methods and provide coaching on how to organise your job search in the most effective way;
- > Provides the opportunity to meet directly with the recruitment teams of member companies;
- > Helps you better understand the local culture and job search environment;
- > Provides a forum for networking, sharing success stories and exchanging experiences and opportunities with other partners

The partners of employees of IDCN corporate members can join the IDCN. Membership is completely FREE, and if you have received this, you are eligible.

WHO CAN JOIN THE IDCN ?

HOW CAN I JOIN THE IDCN ?

Join the IDCN by submitting your interest at <http://registration.idcn.info>, clearly mentioning the location and company for which your partner is working.

Events are organized throughout the year, providing opportunities to network with Corporate Members, Service Providers and other Partners.

WHAT HAPPENS AT AN IDCN EVENT ?

Presentations and workshops related to host companies and job search topics are conducted.

Recent examples include: CV clinics, interview techniques, developing your elevator pitch, information on local job market and culture, career fairs.

Each event is hosted by a different company and is run with the aid of IDCN volunteers.

VOLUNTEERING FOR THE IDCN

Many IDCN members subsequently volunteer to help run the organization. There are many reasons why this might interest you, among them:

- > Stay active – Use your skills, experience and energy to help sustain and improve a growing organization.
- > Network – Gain access to high-performing and engaging people who support each other.
- > Grow – Enhance your current competencies or learn a new skill while adding to your local and international experience.
- > Stand out – Become more visible to member employers and gain local references.
